

I oppose any changes in Indiana's telephone privacy regulations. It has been working great. Before, I was constantly aggravated with unwanted calls. Now I receive none, and I am very happy with it's results. I cherish my privacy and resent these calls.